"The Mother of Us All"

THE FAMILY HISTORY

OF

Herman Frederick Reemsnyder

AND HIS DESCENDANTS

COMPILED AND PUBLISHED BY A COMMITTEE
CONSISTING OF REV. B. E. REEMSNYDER,
C. C. REEMSNYDER AND SAMUEL HOLL

"A Tract of History, but not too much overgrown with the weeds of fable."

INTRODUCTION.

At the Nineteenth Annual Reunion of the Reemsnyder family held Saturday, August 12, 1905, at the home of Peter Holl it was unanimously decided to publish a family history. A Committee consisting of Rev. B. E. Reemsnyder, Clinton C. Reemsnyder and Samuel Holl was elected to have full charge of the work. The Committee after spending more than two years in strenuously endeavoring to find out all the facts from all the relatives is now ready to make its report and to cease from its labors.

To write a family history is by no means an easy task, and to publish one without errors and entirely satisfactory to all is an absolute impossibility. Some families were not heard from, others sent in only meager portions of their history. Since the Committee was writing a history and not a book of fiction, it could only record what was reported to it. The same information was sought of all; the book will tell how freely all responded. A few reported far more than is found in this history. There are three reasons why such reports were condensed:

(1). Parts of these reports had too much local coloring for a book which will go from Pennsylvania to Washington and from Dakota to Louisiana.

(2) The price, and so necessarily the size of the book, was considered.

(3.) In only a few cases did this occur and it was not deemed wise to give much more space to one than to another of the same generation.

The plan followed in the arranging of the families may be new, but with a little care, you will find it comparatively easy to understand. An index of all the names would be a valuable addition to the history for quick reference, but this benefit would scarcely justify the extra outlay of time and money.

The Committee wishes to acknowledge its deep debt of gratitude to all who so freely and generously assisted in making this history possible. The Committee simply gathered the facts and then arranged them so that there would be some degree of order and harmony throughout the book.

The picture of Margaret Musser Reemsnyder, wife of Herman Reemsnyder, will be found as a frontispiece. The money needed for this was raised by a voluntary subscription taken at the Reunion on August 10, 1907.

It is earnestly hoped that this history will make us all better acquainted with our relatives, and that we will take a greater and more active interest in our Annual Reunions, which are always held on the second Saturday of August. The place is selected each year.

THE COMMITTEE.

Columbus, Ohio, July 4, 1908.

EARLY HISTORY.

It was decided at the outset to begin this history with Herman Frederick Riemenschneider (Reemsnyder). It has, however, seemed wise to insert a Chapter on Early History.

The name Riemenschneider originated in one of the northern provinces of Germany. We have discovered three different ways of spelling the name in this country. There are families in the East who spell it Remensnyder; others in Ohio who spell it Riemenschneider; and a few others in Indiana who spell it Reemsnyder. We have found no connections with these three families but they all originally came from Germany and so, no doubt, are distantly related.

About all we know of the family in Germany relates to Herman's parents and his sister and three brothers and their children. This information which is meager comes to us through two letters written to Herman in 1791 and 1800 by his brother Johann. These letters, written in German, are in the possession of Luther Reemsnyder, Canton, Ohio.

John and Catherine Riemenschneider, of Altoona, Germany, had five children: Heinrich, March 18, 1740—Sept. 15, 1786; Herman Frederick, 1742—Aug. 8, 1808; Johann, dates not known; Susanna, died April 16, 1789; Diedrick Philip, dates not known.

Heinrich married Hedewig Koorhen, March 7, 1773. She died in May, 1791. Their home was in Bremen. They had four children: Diederich Philip, March 26, 1774; Gehche Adelhied, March 14, 1776; Heinrich, August 10, 1778; Johann, April 15, 1780, died May 18, 1787. Gehche Adelhied was a dressmaker, later married Heinrich Preitsze.

VIII

Johann married Catherine Maria, October 15, 1773. She died December 21, 1799. He was a school teacher in the Reformed Parochial School, of Altoona, Germany. They had seven children: Frederick, July 21, 1775; Jacob Philip, December 14, 1777; Maria Elizabeth Juliana, March 18, 1780; Gerhard Diedrick, November 6, 1781—October 10, 1783; Peter Ulrich, February 21, 1785—July 22, 1787; Jacob Fred Wilhelm, January 13, 1789; Catherine Henrietta, September 9, 1792. The two oldest sons were goldsmiths.

Susanna married Diederich Meyer April 25, 1787. He was a wig manufacturer. Their son, Diederich born in 1787 was a good student in the foreign languages. Their home was in Bremen.

Diederich Philip had two sons. The older one was born March 26, 1774, and in 1787 he left home and had not been heard from in 1800. The younger son was born August 10, 1778, and in 1800 was learning to quill in Bremen.

To write the life of Herman Riemenschneider is indeed a tedious and difficult task. The generation that knew him is now all passed. Family traditions, tomb stones and government records were examined to find authentic information concerning him. The best, however, comes to us through the letters from his brother, written in 1791 and 1800.

This is the story that is told by many of the relatives: Herman left Germany in order to escape being drafted for the Seven Years' War. He arrived at Philadelphia at about 18 years of age and began work as a cabinet maker. How long he stayed at Philadelphia and worked at the trade is unknown. He left there and went further west and located in Chester County, Pennsylvania. After staying there a little while, he went to Lancaster County, Pa., and there followed his trade. At the outbreak of the Revolution, he enlisted in the service. The following are government reports of the same:

WAR DEPARTMENT.

The Military Secretary's Office,
Washington, March 14, 1906.

The records of this office show that one, Frederick Reamschneider served as a private in Capt. Andrew Geyer's Company of Colonel T. Matlock's rifle battalion, Philadelphia Brigade, Pennsylvania Troops, Revolutionary War. His name appears on a muster roll of a division of the Company mentioned, covering the period from December 4 to 24, both dates included, year not stated. He is reported on said roll as "entered service, Dec. 4." Nothing further bearing upon the subject of inquiry has been found of record.

It is suggested, as a possibility, that additional information can be obtained from the Adjutant General of the State of Pennsylvania.

(Signed.)

THE MILITARY SECRETARY.

Harrisburg, Pa., U. S. A.
Sept. 18, 1906.

To Whom It May Concern:—

I hereby certify that the name of Frederick Rimesnyder appears as that of a private on the pay-roll of Capt. Chas. Gobin's Company of the Sixth Battalion of Berks County Militia, under the command of Col. Joseph Hiester in the service of the United States, from August 10th to Sept. 9th, 1780.

See P. 237, Vol. 5, Pennsylvania Archives, Fifth Series.

LUTHER R. KELKER,

Custodian of the Public Records, Pennsylvania State Library.

Continuing the story which has been broken by the government reports, it is stated that Herman voluntarily enlisted in the militia and fought at the battle of Brandywine on that memorable day, Sept. 11th, 1777. Being wounded, he together with five hundred others, was taken to the hospital at Ephrata, Pa. He was cared for in the Brother House. This house stands today, but on account of its dilapidated condition, it was closed several months ago to all visitors as being unsafe.

The story also goes that while Herman was on his way from Brandywine to the hospital, he with the other men stopped at a watering place to give the wounded soldiers and horses some water. At this place, Margaret Anne Musser, then a young girl, waited upon Herman. This was the beginning of the love story which followed and finally consummated in marriage. After he left the hospital he made it his business to hunt up Margaret and after a brief period of courtship they were married.

Luther R. Kelker, State Librarian of Pennsylvania, says that Reemsnyders of the Revolution did not live in Lancaster County, but in Berks County, according to the records on file in the State Library. He is quite an authority and says that there is very poor probability of Herman ever having been engaged in the battle of Brandywine. John R. Jordan, of the Historical Society of Pennsylvania, says there is no such thing as proof upon which we can lay any assurance. He does not believe Herman fought in the battle of Brandywine nor that he was ever taken to the Ephrata Hospital. He also says that Timothy Matlock was never near the Battle of Brandywine.

Henry Reemsnyder, of Kansas, a grandson of Herman, claims that his grandfather was a Colonel in the Revolutionary War.

The situation is simply this: The records for the year 1777 concerning the army were all destroyed, including those of the hospital. The hospitals were poorly equipped and exceedingly limited in their resources, causing a high death rate. It is now said officially that a bed of straw which was putrid from long use and compact with diseases and fever was not changed but served for one patient after another. General George Washington, at this time, was in desperate straits. He could get no help from the Continental Congress and so was forced to rely upon his own resources. The army was exceedingly discouraged and it was difficult to get recruits. Such being the case, Washington used every precaution that reports concerning the distressful condition of the army should be suppressed. Nevertheless, Washington had personal reports from all quarters which were destroyed afterwards. This will probably make it clear why it is nearly impossible to get absolute proof concerning Herman's war record.

Further stories told among the relatives give Herman credit for building the first church in his community and also the first substantial house. It is known that he followed the work of building houses and he also engaged in farming.

Herman Frederick Riemenschneider was born 1742 (this date is uncertain) and died Aug. 8, 1808. There is a small stone about ten inches square and about eighteen inches high placed at the head of his grave. This is a red sand stone and the inscription on it is so weather-beaten that it can no longer be read. There has been much interest in the East to erect a monument to Herman as a veteran of the Revolutionary War. This movement received its impetus from Elias Reemsnyder, son of John Reemsnyder, but upon his death, the interest has been slackened for the want of sufficient proof of his really having been a veteran. We believe, however, that we have sufficient proof that he really was a Revolutionary veteran, so let all who are interested and are willing to help in this laudable undertaking to erect a suitable monument to his memory, report to the Reemsnyder reunion in 1909.

In the same cemetery with Herman, her husband, although distantly removed, is the tomb-stone which marks the burial place of Margaret. The following inscription is to be found upon it: "Margaret Anne Reemsnyder, the wife of Frederick Reemsnyder, was born Jan. 19, 1762, and died August 15, 1851. She has nine children, 46 grandchildren, 115 great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild."

It is very difficult to find anything out about the life of Margaret. However, the Mussers are everywhere held in high esteem in Lancaster County, Pa. The history of the County gives many Mussers holding high rank in the army. Historians, who have looked up that history, say that the Mussers were among the most highly esteemed people of the times.

Dr. James Reemsnyder, of Hinkletown, Pa., has a chest in his possession which is the handi-work of Herman. This chest speaks of the work of a master mechanic. Luther Reemsnyder, of Canton, Ohio, has a quilt made by Margaret, of which all Reemsnyders can be proud.

It appears that Herman retained the original spelling of his name during his military career, but some time between that and the christening of his first child, it had undergone a change from Riemenschneider to Reemsnyder.

She was a recognized authority on all questions concerning relationship. Having no children, she had plenty of time to keep herself posted on family history, but she had no one to hand down her name and her history to future generations. For many years she conducted a sewing establishment for a living. She died June 8, 1884. Their home was in Lancaster Co., Pa.

In the same cemetery with Herman, her husband, although distantly removed, is the tomb-stone which marks the burial place of Margaret. The following inscription is to be found upon it: "Margaret Anne Reemsnyder, the wife of Frederick Reemsnyder, was born Jan. 19, 1762, and died August 15, 1851. She has nine children, 46 grandchildren, 115 great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild."

It is very difficult to find anything out about the life of Margaret. However, the Mussers are everywhere held in high esteem in Lancaster County, Pa. The history of the County gives many Mussers holding high rank in the army. Historians, who have looked up that history, say that the Mussers were among the most highly esteemed people of the times.

Dr. James Reemsnyder, of Hinkletown, Pa., has a chest in his possession which is the handi-work of Herman. This chest speaks of the work of a master mechanic. Luther Reemsnyder, of Canton, Ohio, has a quilt made by Margaret, of which all Reemsnyders can be proud.

It appears that Herman retained the original spelling of his name during his military career, but some time between that and the christening of his first child, it had undergone a change from Riemenchneider to Reemsnyder.

FAMILY HISTORIAN.

The Committee has done its work, but the Reemsnyder history goes on. In order to keep step with time, and to avoid the serious difficulties which were met with in this work, it was decided, at the Reunion in 1907, to elect a family historian, who shall be "eternally at it" keeping the family records. Mr. C. C. Keemsnyder, Akron, O., a member of the history committee, was chosen to fill this important position. It is earnestly hoped that all corrections and additions to the history will be reported to him as promptly as possible. Please keep the historian informed in regard to yourself and your family, so that he can inform all the rest. He will make a careful report each year at the Reunion. Those not present can secure the report by sending a written request to the historian. In this way we will be able to keep a better record, of our large and widely scattered relationship, than was kept by our fathers.

May the Reemsnyder family ever keep its face toward the future, its eyes open to the light of truth, its ears ready to detect the "still small voice" of duty, and may its heart beat in sympathy with all men and with the great heart of God.

THE END.
